21 Armidale Crescent HELENSVALE QLD

4 2 7

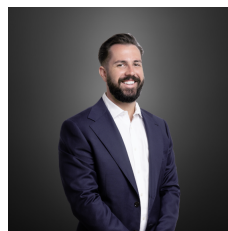

First time coming to the market in 14 years! Very rarely does such an opportunity present itself that when it does come up its imperative to jump on them fast!

Sitting on a corner block of two quiet streets this hidden gem has huge upside and great potential on a large block that could be land banked and split to multiple sites.

The ultimate family home, fully renovated across one level with great sized rooms, ducted aircon throughout and an envious outdoor set up with a huge pool, covered deck entertainment area/outdoor kitchen, games room and loft for added storage. By the time you move in summer will be around the corner to enjoy all that this property offers.
